Comments

The Alto part may be sung by a folk singer, and may thus be elaborated in a folk manner with ornamentation following Norwegian folk music tradition. Suggested ornamentation in the solo part is written throughout the piece. Ornamentation may deviate from these suggestions. All suggested grace notes should be performed before the beat, as very short grace notes. In any case, the soloist should strive for a non operatic sound idiom. The soloist may vary the sound quality of the voice, using for instance soft sounding voice versus more nasal sounding voice.

The three folk songs used in the piece are from Mo i Rana, Ørsta and Romedal.

The orchestral parts should in general be played in a tenuto manner, but should in any case be performed with a slight dance feeling. The end of the piece (from bar 393 / Rehearsal mark X) should be performed without the previous dance feeling, but still in a tenuto manner.
